BY LYLE ABBOTT

PRESCOTT, July 3.—Because Joe O'Connell broke his chain, and Lorenzo Boido stopped to pass him a pair of pliers to make the repairs with, Ellie Wilson, riding "Old Blue," the last machine to get away at Phoenix, slipped up, finished third and won the Phoenix-PreScott road race by ten minutes from the good Samaritan. When Boido flew past the tape, here at 10:12, he was unanimously hailed as winner, and many dispatches went out to that effect. But as the minutes flew by, the margin drew near its limit, a signal was seen on the top of the hill, and in a moment came Wilson, fairly flying down the last stretch. As he crossed the tape at 10:38:27, he was checked in first place by just that little ten minutes it took Boido to help O'Connell. Boido a good sport, after being told he hadn't won the race, showed that though he felt very badly about it, but he could still mean what he said when he greeted Ellie: "You made a good ride, old kid. I'm glad you won."

Tremendous excitement attended the finish. When it was learned that O'Connell had checked through Hillsdale at 8:27, having made the run to within thirty-five miles of Prescott in the astounding time of 2:57, crowds began to collect, though the race was not expected to finish before 11:30. Referee John Hohl, Judge Ray Van and other officials had the streets cleared by running automobiles up and down. It was drizzling rain and very slick underfoot, but the people just would get in the way. Billy Gerig, our own little mail clerk, riding his White Thor, finished second in a sensational manner. Trying to avoid the people on the street, he threw his machine sideways the same as he does on the Phoenix streets, skidded and came within a inch of wrecking a moving picture camera that was skidding in the details of the finish.

Gerig had made a wonderful ride. Wootton, also a Republican carrier riding an unfamiliar machine had carburetor troubles, but ambled along, checking in with Weyand and McCullough after the noon hour. Bertram's Indian went into the ditch and he came in on a car. He was not hurt.

Harry Crundall, who broke his frame before he reached Hot Springs Junction caught a car and rode into town sending all over a scared face, received in the spill.

Hohl's Statement

John Hohl, the state referee, after the race made the following statement: "The race was a most complete success, and I'm proud of our two clubs for pulling it. Every rule was complied with. The time of the winner was remarkable. I had just come over the road, and knew its condition. At first I feared some one would get hurt owing to the sticky roads, but evidently a little thing like that did not keep our boys from speeding."

The race was unmarred by accident of a serious character. There were many spills, but only good humor and a few slight scars were produced.

By shortly after noon every rider on the list was in Prescott. During the afternoon they divided attention with the campers and automobile racers, speeding about the streets, trying their machines on the hills, which proved specially attractive to young Boido, who has not changed clothes or left his machine since he arrived. The Prescott fellows are learning to call him "motorbike Mike." The prizes will be awarded tomorrow morning by Referee Hohl as soon as the check sheets from Phoenix can be received. Preparations now start for the loop race, Sunday morning. Most of the riders of the Phoenix-PreScott race have announced their intention of competing in the loop race.

Starter Bullard got the boys away from Phoenix yesterday morning in good shape. O'Connell got away first just a second or so after the 5:20 time, and he was followed at three minute intervals by each of the riders in the order of their drawing the night before. As each boy left on his thrilling two wheeler the crowd that had assembled let up a cheer of good luck.

Information began to dribble back to Phoenix shortly after the entire number of riders had left. The speeding boys made good progress and the checking stations sent the word back in good shape. Before noon Phoenix had received word of the winners, and many expressions of regret at O'Connell's misfortune as were kind expressions of Boido's sportsmanship.

The splendid race of Bill Gerig came in for all kinds of commendation, to say nothing of the praise that comes to Ellie Wilson and his "Old Blue." The race is regarded here as most successful.

STORM KILLS TWO

(Associated Press Dispatch)

SALLISAW, Okla., July 3.—Hooper McNeill, aged 14, and John Stewart, aged 12, were killed and a score of persons injured late today during a terrific electric storm which broke over the picnic grounds where United States Senator Gore was scheduled to speak. The senator, however, was not on the grounds.

The crowd had taken refuge in booths and refreshment stands that had been wired for electrical illumination at night. The lightning ran in these wires, shocking many into unconsciousness.

The town opened a two-day celebration today and hundreds of visitors were on the grounds when the storm came up. All of them sought shelter in the buildings.

INNOCENT MAN FREED

(Associated Press Dispatch)

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The case of two men serving sentences for a murder for which another had been sentenced, was revealed when the president signed a commutation which will open the doors of Leavenworth penitentiary to Samuel Coltrane, doing a life sentence for a murder to which a prisoner in the Oklahoma state penitentiary recently confessed. Coltrane had been confined for more than ten years for the crime, which a jury decided last September Tom Watson, now in the Oklahoma penitentiary, committed.

RAIN ON WATERSHED—A

reference to the water report for this morning containing the storage information at Roosevelt will show that the intake at the dam day before yesterday was such as to nearly exceed the loss in acre feet. This was aided by the heavy rains in the Pinal mountains. Pinal and Pinto creeks were running with heavy heads yesterday and the day before so that the stage communication between Globe and Roosevelt was interrupted.

CITY FATHERS TELL WHY ORDINANCE IS APPROVED

City Commissioners Issue Signed Explanation of Their Reasons for Approving Ordinance No. 13
Phoenix, Ariz., July 3, 1914.

To the Citizens of Phoenix: Several articles have appeared in the Arizona Republican criticizing the action of the commissioners in passing Ordinance No. 13.

This ordinance was passed in place of that part of Ordinance No. 6 which related to the licensing and regulation of the liquor traffic of this city.

After a referendum petition had been filed against Ordinance No. 6, and Ordinance No. 6 then being repealed by the commissioners, the commissioners desired to pass an ordinance which would control and regulate the liquor traffic of the city. We found that in part of Ordinance 6 relating to the liquor traffic there were things which we thought would be detrimental to the best interests of the city. Among them was the indiscriminate licensing of restaurants which would have the power to sell and dispose of liquor upon payment of $125.00 per quarter. As practically all of the restaurants of our city are owned and managed by Chinese we were of the opinion that it would be impossible to control them in a manner satisfactory to the citizens of this city of Phoenix; therefore we decided to entirely cut out from the ordinance the licensing of restaurants.

In Ordinance No. 6 there was a provision for the licensing of clubs. We decided upon investigation to eliminate that part of the ordinance as it would give an opportunity for irresponsible people, under the disguise of being a fraternal or social organization to operate clubs upon the payment of a license tax of $50 per quarter.

We found that hotels of fifty rooms or more, under the ordinances of our city, had for years been paying an additional license of $50.00 per quarter for selling liquor in their dining rooms upon Sunday, said ordinances providing for no restrictions whatever, persons did not have to purchase a meal, or in fact anything to eat, there was no limit as to whom sold to or what quantity of liquor was sold by such hotels. We decided that very rigid regulations should be enacted by the commission which would absolutely prevent the abuse of this privilege; therefore in the new ordinance we incorporated regulations, similar to those in force in all cities of southern California, including cities in which prohibition is in effect, which would prevent anyone excepting actual bona fide transient guests from obtaining liquor served to them upon Sundays, excepting in their rooms or in the dining rooms of such hotels with a regular bona fide meal.

We found in the ordinances of the city no provision to revoke or cancel licenses when they were once issued. In the new ordinance No. 3 adopted is ample provision for the commission for any cause, to absolutely revoke licenses for selling liquor, said clause ending with the following words: "or of any other act or conduct which the commission may or shall deem to be injurious, detrimental to the public health, morals or safety."

It has been the desire of the commission to draft a comprehensive ordinance which would provide stringent regulations to control the liquor traffic of this city, and we are confident that Ordinance No. 13 provides these means. We believe Ordinance No. 13 will prove more satisfactory regarding control and regulation of the liquor traffic of the city than Ordinance No. 6 or any other ordinance or ordinances ever in force in our city.

FINANCE AND MARKETS

(Associated Press Dispatch)

NEW YORK, July 3.—There was evidence in the day's fall, but fairly strong market that the financial community is eager to seize upon any valid excuse or reason to advance quoted values. An impelling factor was overnight news from Washington which implied a close understanding of mutual needs to be established between the administration on one hand, and financial and industrial commercial interests on the other. Stocks opened with substantial gains for the most speculative favorites. In the final dealings the market relaxed into its recent dull state, but closed firm. London's market was more cheerful and buying for that account of about 5000 shares was registered here. Almost the only new financing of the local market during the week was the sale to a bonding syndicate of $20,000,000 Northern Pacific railway bonds recently issued by the directors. Bonds were steady with limited movement in many issues which recently fluctuated widely. Total sales represented a par value of $1,892,000. Panama coupon 3's advanced one-fourth on call during the week.
